such modified equipment. This reorientation will be accomplished at the contractor's plant during the periods when field service engineers are not assigned to another contractor's plant, at on-site or remote locations.

(b) On-Site Reorientation: The contractor will reorient all field service engineers in the latest techniques and methods of field operation and maintenance of the modified equipment used on the program. The on-site reorientation will be accomplished at the Test Site location.

(c) Other Contractor's Plant Reorientation: The contractor will assign field service engineers to training programs designed to familiarize the engineers with the latest modifications of other contractor's equipment or processes for which ~~our personnel~~ <sup>* field service engineers</sup> are responsible at Detachment, as well as the latest methods and techniques of operating and maintaining those equipments. This reorientation will be accomplished at other contractor's plants.

(d) Overseas Field Service: The contractor will provide two (2) teams of approximately seven (7) men each of fully qualified personnel to enable continued support to maintain the operational capability and provide field maintenance of equipments provided on another contract. The contemplated work will be performed at a place, or places, outside of the continental limits of the United States."

B. Paragraph c. ASSIGNMENT OF PERSONNEL of PART I of the SCHEDULE is deleted in its entirety and the following is substituted therefor:

"c. ASSIGNMENT OF PERSONNEL:

(1) The assignment of contract technical services personnel to a designated place and the effective date of said assignment will be made by mutual agreement between the parties hereto. The assignment will be substantiated by the execution of an "Agreement of Employment". Said "Agreement of Employment" shall be in accordance with Exhibit "A" or Exhibit "B" which are attached and made a part of this contract. The contractor shall furnish to the Contracting Officer such copies of the employment contracts entered into as may be required by the Contracting Officer.
